Hon. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I wish to take a few moments to thank you for the extremely interesting talk which you made last week at the Conference for the B.D.S.A. National Defense Executive Reserve. Your informative comments were a highlight of a very fine training program planned by the Commerce Department.

The Executive Reservists, as you know, are dedicated to the full time service of their respective Industrial Divisions in case of National Emergency or general war. As a reservist member of the Automotive - Transportation Division, I particularly feel that your comments gave a special renewed sense of urgency and importance to our work.

Again, I thank you for your cordiality. I look forward to meeting you again soon.

Very truly yours,
